

A SUSTAINABLE DAIRY FUTURE

How Irish farmers are turning challenge into opportunity

ICOS / UCC CPD CONFERENCE

SUSTAINABLE DAIRY CONFERENCE

The Sustainability Event, is a two day conference jointly organised by ICOS and UCC. This conference is shaping the discussion surrounding sustainable practices within the Irish dairy co-op sector. This event brings together industry leaders, experts, and stakeholders to explore and promote sustainability as a critical driver of progress and profitability in the sector.

VENUE :
AULA MAXIMA,
UNIVERSITY COLLEGE
CORK

WHEN :
4TH & 5TH
DECEMBER
2023

KEY THEMES

THE FUTURE OF IRELAND'S
NITRATES
DEROGATION

CLIMATE CHANGE &
BIODIVERSITY

SUSTAINABILITY
AS AN OPPORTUNITY

SUSTAINABILITY
AS A BUSINESS
IMPERATIVE

SUSTAINABILITY
ACROSS THE SUPPLY CHAIN

SUSTAINABILITY
REPORTING

KEY SPEAKERS

Simon Coveney, Minister for Enterprise, Trade & Employment

Billy Kelleher, Member of the European Parliament

Bill Callanan, DAFM

Gerry Boyle, Chair of the Food Vision Dairy Group

Dr John Roche, Chief Science Advisor, Ministry for Primary Industries
New Zealand

Laurence Shalloo, Head of Animal & Grassland Research
Innovation, Teagasc

Mary Gurrie, Environmental Protection Agency

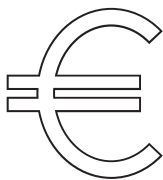

Eddie Burgess, Teagasc Agricultural Catchments Programme

Catherine Keena, Teagasc Biodiversity Expert

Gary Lanigan, Lead author of the Teagasc MACC

Dave Fitzgerald, Sustainability Director, Ornu

Brian Ó Gallachóir, MaREI Director & UCC Environmental Research Institute (ERI) Director.

Conference Cost

The cost is €280 per person this includes lunch & formal gala dinner on the first night

Accommodation

The Kingsley Hotel, for discounted accommodation rates please reference ICOS/UCC Sustainability Event

REGISTER NOW